

Pre AP - CHS 9 Summer Reading 2018

"In Conroe ISD, we encourage all students to read over the summer in order to enrich learning and provoke thought. Summer reading strengthens reading skills, increases academic achievement, fosters a love for reading, and empowers students to become life-long learners. Additionally, students who enroll in a Pre AP or AP English course are expected to engage in summer reading as it prepares students for the upcoming school year and creates an initial common framework for classroom discussion and instruction."

Independent Reading Journal Prompts

After reading your Non-Fiction novel, answer the following guided questions. Each needs to be written in a complete paragraph (3-5 detailed sentences). All 10 need to be completed for full credit. Grades: This is a major grade. Each response is worth 10 points. Your journal is due Friday, September 18, 2017.

However, if it is complete and ready to submit by Friday, September 1, 10 points will be added to this grade.

Journal can be handwritten or typed on computer paper.

1. How does your book begin? First describe the events that start your story. Then tell if this is a good, effective way for the author to start the book. Explain why or why not. What would you change? Start out: My book begins... This is a good/bad way to start the story because...
2. What is the problem or conflict of your book? Which characters are involved? How do you think the problem or conflict might be solved? Start out: The conflict or problem in my book is...
3. What is the setting of your story? Remember that setting is both place and time of the story. Your book will most likely not tell you exactly when and where it takes place, but you can find clues in the story. Is this a modern story (computers, video games, shopping malls, etc.)? Does it take place in a city, suburb, or farm area? Be sure to tell the clues that give the setting of your story. Start out: My story takes place... I can tell because...
4. Who is the main character in your book? What is this character like? Tell the character's name, age, appearance, friends, personality, and problems? Start out: The main character of my book is...
5. Describe a minor character in your book. Identify the character by name and describe him/her. What is the character's part in the story? How does this character feel about the main character and vice-versa? Use examples from the story. Start out: A minor character in my book is...
6. Explain how a character in your book reminds you of yourself or someone you know. For example, do you or a friend or relative, like some of the same things, have some of the same interests, or have similar problems as a character in your book? Start out: The character, _____, reminds me of _____. This is because...
7. Tell why you chose your book to read. What factors went into your decision (interesting cover, back cover, recommendation)? Start out: I chose this book because...

8. Would you like to live like the characters in your book? Explain how they live (the situation) and why or why not you would like to live like that. Start out: I would/would not like to live like my characters because...
9. If you were the main character in your book, how would you handle the situation he or she faces in the story? Be sure to briefly describe the situation before telling how you would handle it. Start out: If I were the main character in my book I would...
10. What do you think of the title of your book? Is it a good title? "Does it fit your book? Why do you think the author chose this title? Explain how the title fits the book or make up a better title and tell why the new title is better. Start out: The title of my book is... This is a good/bad title because... The author chose this title because... -or- I think _____ is a better title because...

Example Journal Entry: What is the problem or conflict of your book? Which characters are involved? How do you think the problem or conflict might be solved? Start out: The conflict or problem in my book is...

The conflict in Amy Tan's Fish Cheeks is that Amy struggles with being both Chinese and American. She wishes for American features hoping to attract the attention of the minister's son, Robert. This conflict is presented when her family invites this American family over for Christmas dinner where the menu was surprisingly authentic Chinese cuisine. The night was awkward when she notices the vast differences between their families and cultures. The conflict is resolved when Amy's mom helps her realize that she doesn't have to choose between either culture; it is okay to embrace both.

Cover Assignment

Design a cover for your journal. It needs to reflect a vivid scene from your novel. The drawing is a representation of your own understanding; therefore, your work must be original. (Acceptable formats are hand-drawn, drawn on the computer, collages) (Unacceptable-copying and pasting 1 or 2 pictures from the internet will not be sufficient)

It must have the book's title and author's name. Write "Book Cover by," and put your name. Cover must be neat, display color, and show effort.

This will be two daily grades. It will be stapled to the front of your journal and handed in together.
